

MicroJetNetwork.com
"Get Plugged In & Get Connected!"

Web Release For Immediate Distribution

Miami, Florida, USA January 23rd, 2012

Oscar S. Garcia, Chairman and CEO of Inter Flight Global (IFG) and Dean A. Kantis, Founder and CEO of Micro Jet Network (MJN) announce a strategic partnership starting on January 2012 seamlessly combining and enhancing the firms' capabilities.

MJN's innovative and entrepreneurial jet sales, marketing and distribution capabilities are now aligned with IFG's world class jet operations, technical, regulatory, compliance, safety and security consulting and advisory capabilities.

The firm's principals accumulate over 26 years and well over $500 million worth of combined jet aviation consulting, sales, and business aviation expertise, this partnership offers clients a "turn-key solution" to sell, maintain, manage and support jet aircraft in the entry level segment.

Strategically located in Miami, FL the strategic partnership caters to the Latin American, North American, and European jet market clients and stakeholders. Headquartered at Fontainebleau Aviation (Formerly Turnberry Aviation)" with satellite offices in Madrid, London, and Amsterdam. IFG-MJN can offer a complete entry level jet ABC (Advisory-Consulting and Brokerage) package with international presence and know-how.

Dean A. Kantis
CEO, Micro Jet Network

Oscar S. Garcia
CEO, Inter Flight Global

Contact Oscar Garcia +1-305-904-5183, oscargarcia@interflightglobal.com and Dean Kantis +1-754-234-9993, dk@microjetnetwork.com to discuss your entry level jet aircraft acquisition or sale transaction.

MicroJetNetwork.com
"Get Plugged In & Get Connected!"