

Cyntia Garcia

Executive Director

cyntiagarcia@interflightconsulting.com

Cyntia Garcia joined IFG in July 2009 as an Executive Director to service the group's clients worldwide with a special emphasis in Spain and Latin America.

She brings to the team a robust Business Administration undergraduate (Universidad Autonoma de Madrid) and aviation and aerospace MBA level (Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University) education.

Growing up in Madrid, Spain, Cyntia's family were strong supporters and frequent users of private aviation.

During her university years, she has held different positions assisting Professors and the Assistant Dean with internal projects at the MBA and PhD research levels.

Her practical work experience during her formative years includes administration, accounting, customer support and employee relations in the automotive family business.

Cyntia's support of IFG's leadership team, Sr. Advisors and Executive Directors is expected to yield important gains to clients, associates and industry stakeholders.

Cyntia speaks fluent Spanish and basic French and enjoys charity work, traveling and multi cultural team activities and challenges.
