20/20 Foresight Since 1992

“InterFlight Global provides the ultimate service in aviation and aerospace solutions. We are unique in our ability to partner our team of industry leading advisors and extensive industry resource networks with our clients to offer the smartest results yielding strategy possible.”

-Oscar S. Garcia, Chairman

An aerial photograph showing the underside of a large aircraft wing. The wing's structure, including various panels and a wingtip device, is clearly visible. Below the wing, a patchwork of green fields, roads, and some buildings can be seen on the ground. The sky above is filled with soft, white and grey clouds, with a hint of blue near the horizon.

OUR SERVICES

“We earn your trust with bankable results, one project at a time. In our universe, each client’s project means the world to us.”

Complex projects demand uniquely designed expert advice and start-to-finish execution oversight. We are by your side through project definition, feasibility study, strategic design, business planning and execution. Together, we will transform business objectives, intuition, experience, and vision into flawlessly executed enterprises.

Our services seamlessly conform to your project's timelines and budgets. Stage by stage, success by success, result by result, our well-planned milestones will exceed your expectations every time.

The return on your investment starts with our pre-structured advisory and consulting services. IFG's proprietary services deliver experience, success-proven, expert insight and solutions. Our processes took us decades to refine, and your project immediately reaps the benefits of that evolution.

BOARD ADVISORY SERVICES

“We are your expert aviation and aerospace advisors.
We consistently deliver effective, time-tested and results-generating advice.”

Our expert re-nowned Board Advisory Services (BAS) are meant to enhance your business decision-making at its highest governance and managerial levels across all its critical dimensions.

IFG's industry leading advisors and senior executives will deliver decades of industry relevant experience, boosting profitability, and enhancing equity. Our only goal is to improve your critical paths and choices, including key strategic, financial, operational, and investment decisions.

Since 1992, IFG's BAS clients worldwide, ranging from startup operations to multi-national conglomerates, have benefited from our timely inputs, cost-effective deliverables and real-time expert decision inputs.

IFG's BAS yield quantified bankable efficiencies, significant equity gains, and most importantly, bottom line profits well in excess of our service's cost.

Moreover, it is by design that the BAS package blends seamlessly with IFG's platforms such as the renowned proprietary Business Consulting Review (BCR) package and other traditional and tailored IFG consulting services.

BUSINESS CONSULTING REVIEW

“We are your expert aviation and aerospace board consultants. We consistently deliver time-tested bankable results and winning strategies.”

Since 1992, IFG's methodology and proprietary Business Consulting Review (BCR) greatly improves your business decision making across all its critical dimensions. Our industry-leading consultants and tenured executives have decades of experience and will enhance your critical path choices, feasibility, strategic, financial, operational, and investment decisions.

Since 1992, selected aviation, aerospace, defense and space clients worldwide, ranging from startup operations to multi-national conglomerates, have improved profits, contained risks, and managed market challenges successfully using IFG's BCR work product.

IFG's BCR intellectual property analysis tools, comprehensive deliverables, and profit-making solutions are industry leading in the consulting field. Our BCR's yield significant and timely efficiencies, equity gains and measurable profits, which exceed the professional fees our clients invest in our services.

By design, the BCR work product blends seamlessly with IFG's proprietary Board Advisory Services (BAS), an exclusive board-level application of our decision support methodology.

AEROSPACE & AVIATION FINANCE

“We are your expert aviation, aerospace, and defense investment advisors. We lead and arrange your finance needs with talent, experience, and vast industry networks and resources.”

If aerospace and aviation suits your business, wealth, and lifestyle, we will take you into this exclusive world, and show you all your asset choices and classes, investment alternatives and tailored solutions to your aerospace and aviation requirements and interests.

Whether you are entering, expanding, exiting, or merely investigating aerospace and aviation investment opportunities, you should rely on a trusted expert and, most importantly, an objective, “independent” partner for the best investment strategy and arrangement - just like you do when managing your wealth, investments and business in any other industry.

Aerospace and aviation presents you, and your business with numerous options and investment scenarios. We will expertly advise you how to seamlessly align the aerospace and aviation financial, wealth, legal, and tax dimensions with your overall business, investment, and wealth universe.

We identify, source, strategize, and numerically evaluate all options available to you. We do not receive compensation from any of the required vendors networks or resources we recommend and make available exclusively to you. Moreover, we act as trusted strategic shields from the noises and hassle of the multitude of financial vendors trying to opportunistically sell their aerospace and aviation products and services.
